Students, are you interested in helping isolated older adults during the pandemic?

Love in Action is a telephone reassurance program associated with the Georgia Southern University Senior Companion Program

Students are paired with older adults and make phone calls to check in, socialize and develop relationships with older adults who are homebound due to a combination of the pandemic and physical and/or cognitive needs.

- All your volunteering is remote and training is provided
- You can volunteer or use this program as service learning for a class or an internship
- Minimum commitment is 7 weeks including background check and orientation.

*If you are interested contact Love in Action at:
loveinaction@georgiasouthern.edu*
